Process Framework

Process Framework provides a high level description of process elements and their relationships.

Process Component

Process Components are collections of process element instances that are grouped together to serve a common goal.

Process Component Instance

Process Component Instances are project/company specific applications of a process component.

Project leader
Matias Vierimaa

Project email
matias.vierimaa@vtt.fi

Project website
https://itea3.org/project/promes.html